Beyond Consequences: Understanding the Traumatized Child at Home and School

The Connecticut Council on Adoption (CCA) , Touched by Adoption, The Village for Families and Children, and the UConn Health Adoption Assistance Program (AAP) are pleased to announce this full day training to be held at Fantasia in North Haven. More details to follow but mark your calendars now for this exciting opportunity!

Heather Forbes is the owner of the Beyond Consequences Institute (BCI). She has worked in the field of trauma and healing since 1999. Heather is an internationally published author on the topics of raising children with difficult and severe behaviors, the impact of trauma on the developing child, adoptive motherhood, and self-development. Much of her experience and insight on understanding trauma, disruptive behaviors, and adoption-related issues comes from her direct mothering experience of her two adopted children.
