

Credentialing

School of Medicine and John Dempsey Hospital

The Medical Staff Office of John Dempsey Hospital is responsible for credentialing all independent practitioners within the University of Connecticut Health Center, with the exception of the School of Dental Medicine Clinics. Medical Staff privileges are required prior to the delivery of any clinical care or treatment on the UCHC campus, including the John Dempsey Hospital, the UConn Medical Group clinics, the General Clinical Research Center, and the Clinical Trials Center.
