

FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENT RELATIONS POLICY

The relationships between faculty, staff, residents, fellows, and students should demonstrate the highest standards of ethical conduct in all educational settings and be conducted without abuse, humiliation, harassment and exploitation of relationships for personal gain or advantage.

For information about inappropriate amorous relationships, residents and fellows may refer to the University of Connecticut's Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Interpersonal Violence.

Residents and fellows may report concerns regarding discrimination, harassment and related interpersonal violence by contacting the Office of Institutional Equity. Residents and fellows may also report concerns via any of the avenues outlined in the Reporting Concerns Policy for Medical Residents and Fellows.
