

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR DISABILITIES

Programs are committed to achieving equal educational and employment opportunity and full participation for persons with disabilities. State and Federal laws, as well as University Policy, prohibit discrimination against individuals with disabilities. Discrimination includes failing to provide reasonable accommodations, consistent with state and federal law, to persons with disabilities. (see Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment and Related Interpersonal Violence).

If a resident/fellow thinks that they might need a reasonable accommodation, the resident/fellow should contact the Office for Inclusion and Civil Rights at UConn Health. The Accessibility website has more detailed information, including links to information regarding the reasonable accommodation process and accommodation request forms.
