

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The University of Connecticut School of Medicine's Graduate Medical Education Programs and the Office of Graduate Medical Education are committed to providing equal employment opportunities for all residents/fellows. Our residency programs recruit, appoint, train, and promote residents and fellows without regard to an individual's legally protected class including race, color, religion, age, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or marital status.

Revised 8/17, 4/19, 10/25

Reviewed 3/21, 2/23, 1/25, 2/26