

POLICY AGAINST DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND RELATED INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE

The University of Connecticut (the "University") is committed to maintaining safe and non-discriminatory learning and working environments for all members of the University community – students, employees, residents, fellows, patients, and visitors.

Residents and fellows may refer to the University of Connecticut's Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Interpersonal Violence for more information.

Residents and fellows may report concerns regarding discrimination, harassment and related interpersonal violence by contacting the Office for Inclusion and Civil Rights. Residents and fellows may also report concerns via any of the avenues outlined in the Reporting Concerns Policy for Medical Residents and Fellows.
