

UConn HEALTH

Department of Health Career Opportunity Programs
Aetna Health Professions Partnership Initiative

Doctors Academy Parental Seminar Series

Guest Speaker: Dr. Christine Crawford

Topic: Anxiety and Stress

Date: December 2, 2020

Time: 6 - 7:30 p.m.

Virtual Presentation: Cisco WebEx Access Website

Dr. Christine M. Crawford is the Associate Director of Medical Student Education in Psychiatry and an Assistant Professor of Psychiatry at Boston University School of Medicine. She also serves as the Associate Medical Director for the National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI).

Dr. Crawford completed her adult psychiatry residency as well as child and adolescent psychiatry fellowship training at Massachusetts General Hospital/McLean Hospital. She received her M.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Medicine and her Master's in Public Health from Boston University School of Public Health where she concentrated in Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Dr. Crawford has been engaged in a number of community outreach initiatives through the Boys and Girls Club of Boston, NAACP and NAMI. She has authored multiple book chapters on mental health disparities, sociocultural issues in psychiatry, as well as peer reviewed publications focusing on major depressive disorder. She has made appearances on numerous media outlets and provides seminars on mental health and racism at various community based settings.