Gerald Birmingham, DMD, MPH completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Massachusetts Boston and earned his dental degree from the University of Connecticut School of Dental Medicine.

He went on to practice dentistry at SouthWest Community Health Center in Bridgeport where he became the Dental Director and was instrumental in designing a modern dental facility during his four-year stay at the health center.

Dr. Birmingham went on to pursue his MPH degree while opening his own private dental office and retired after 34 years in 2023.

Today, Dr. Birmingham is an Assistant Professor at the University of Connecticut School of Dental Medicine and Assistant Director of the Department of Health Career Opportunity Programs.

He loves teaching and interacting with students as they pursue their degree in dental medicine.
