

Ideas Lab Funding Opportunity: Transforming Systems for Radical Healing and Health Equity among Boys and Men of Color

Intent to Pitch Form

Please note this form is for reference only to assist teams in completing their applications ahead of time. To complete and submit your online application, please visit:*

<https://health.uconn.edu/health-disparities/ideas-lab/>*

Eligibility Questions:*

Your team must meet all eligibility criteria listed below, except for the optional one, to be eligible to apply.

- Our team will present at the pitch event in August 2022. Dates will be provided to teams who intend to pitch. Yes/No
- Our team has at least two members, inclusive of a community organization or partner. Yes/No
- Our team has a UConn Principal Investigator/Project Director. Yes/No
- Our team represents at least two different disciplines or sectors. Yes/No
- Optional: Our team has intergenerational representation. Yes/No

Pitch Title or Team Name:*

Team Contact Name:*

Team Contact Email:*

Team Contact Phone Number:*

Which best describes your project pitch type? Please select the choice you think fits your pitch best.*

- Practice
- Policy
- Community-based research

What focus area(s) does your pitch cover? Select all that apply.*

- Behavioral health
- Incarceration & justice
- HIV/AIDs
- Trauma
- Other: please specify

What sector(s) does your team represent (e.g., healthcare, education, social services, etc.)? Please list all that apply.*

Write one sentence that describes the big idea about health equity among boys and men of color that your team wants to spread.*

*Required