Verification of Health Requirements

I verify that _______________________________________________ has met the health requirements listed below for an Unpaid Educational Non-School Sponsored Experience at UConn Health.

Health Requirements:
- Documentation of Covid-19 vaccination. Initial if met________
- Documentation of vaccination with two doses of live measles and mumps vaccines (MMR) administered at least 28 days apart (one vaccine must be documented after 1980) or documented immunity by positive laboratory titers for measles and mumps or birth before January 1, 1957. Initial if met________
- Documentation of vaccination with one dose of live rubella (at least one MMR) or an immune laboratory titer. Initial if met________
- Evidence of a non-reactive PPD or a negative quantiferon gold test within the past year or documentation of treatment and resolution of active TB or documentation of an absence of symptoms and a negative chest x-ray after a positive PPD or positive quantiferon gold test. Initial if met________
- Documentation of two doses of varicella vaccine or laboratory evidence of immunity to varicella or history of previous varicella disease or herpes zoster diagnosed by a health care provider. Initial if met________
- Completion of a Hepatitis B vaccination series with documentation of immunity based upon a positive Hepatitis B Surface antibody titer. Initial if met________
- Documentation of adult Tdap. Initial if met________
- Up to date influenza immunization. Initial if met________

_________________________________      _______________________________________
Physician’s Signature                              Date

_________________________________      _______________________________________
Physician’s Printed Name                              Physician’s Practice Address

Please return to the student’s UConn Health Host.

Do not submit individual student health records.

Please note: The hosting department will maintain this individual’s record for a minimum of 5 years from date of termination, in accordance with the state of Connecticut’s record retention policy.

Dev. 2014
Revised: 07/2019