POLICY NUMBER 2014-04

February 17, 2015

POLICY: SANCTIONS POLICY FOR PRIVACY AND SECURITY VIOLATIONS FOR FACULTY AND STAFF

The following data classification and definition shall be used:

Confidential data – Includes, but is not limited to, personally-identifiable information that is not in the public domain and if improperly disclosed could be used to steal an individual's identity, violate the individual's right to privacy or otherwise harm the individual and/or the institution. Such harm might include but is not limited to:

- actions resulting in significant, severe or catastrophic harm to individuals;
- causing a significant or severe degradation in mission capability;
- causing significant or major damage to organizational assets;
- actions resulting in significant or major financial loss; or
- actions resulting in sanctions against UConn Health by a governmental or regulatory body.

Examples of such data may include, but are not limited to:

- Certain student information
- Medical/Dental/Behavioral Health-related patient information (PHI)
- Other sensitive UConn Health information not in the public domain
- Financial information (budgets, strategic revenue plans, accounts receivable/payable details) NOTE: Credit card numbers are not to be collected, transmitted, or stored on UConn Health's computing devices and networks under any circumstances. Posting credit card information to a vendor website for authorized purposes using UConn Health's computing devices is allowed. Sending credit card information via email for any reason is not allowed. For any questions please contact the Information Security Office.
- Employee human resources and financial information
- Any information about employees, students, patients, Board Members, etc. that includes Social Security numbers
- IDs and/or Passwords for access to UConn Health computing resources
- Research data requiring protections (clinical trials, patient survey responses, etc.) as required by federal and non-federal sponsors.

The data above is hereafter referred to as "Confidential Data" in this policy.

PURPOSE:

UConn Health policies regarding privacy and security of Protected Health Information (PHI) and other “Confidential Data” as a result of doing business, reflect its commitment to protecting the confidentiality of all forms of data whether on paper, in electronic form, or discussed verbally. While a commitment to privacy and security of data is an expectation, there remains a possibility that an inappropriate or unintended disclosure of any type of “Confidential Data” may result in a privacy breach. This policy will determine the procedure to manage and mitigate all breaches, both willful violations and unintended actions. This policy is also intended to be consistent with guidance described by the HIPAA and HITECH rules when managing patient information breaches.

SCOPE: This policy applies to the following members of UConn Health:

- Employees (including faculty and staff)
- Volunteers
- Temporary staff
- Agency and contracted staff
- Credentialed staff
- Members of the Board of Directors
- UConn Health sponsored business affiliates subject to a remote access agreement

Note: Students, fellows and residents please see Education policy in applicable handbook.

POLICY STATEMENT:

All forms of data in use whether created, obtained and/or owned by UConn Health are a valuable asset and must be protected from all known security and privacy risks which include unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification, destruction, and removal. All forms of data are covered by this policy, including but not limited to: paper, any systems used to capture electronic data, as well as any media used for creating, obtaining or capturing data.

Disciplinary Sanctions and Appeals - Employees:

1. When a privacy and/or security violation is verified, existing UConn Health procedures for disciplinary action shall be used. Determination of appropriate process should include consultation with the Department of Human Resources - Labor Relations and other offices as appropriate.
2. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:
  - Counseling
  - Oral Warning
  - Written Reprimand
  - Suspension
  - Termination

Business Associates and Sponsored Business Affiliates:

If the individual responsible for the violation/breach is a Business Associate or Sponsored Business Affiliate, UConn Health will take reasonable corrective steps to implement sanctions. While UConn Health is not required to monitor the activity of these partners, we will address problems as we become aware of them and request that they remedy their behavior. UConn Health reserves the right to terminate contracts if it becomes clear that the business partner cannot be relied upon to maintain the privacy/security of information we provide to them.
